WORD

¹⁰As an example of suffering and patience, brothers, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.
¹¹Behold, we consider those blessed who remained steadfast. You have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful. JAMES 5:10,11

(Read also JAMES 5:7-18.)

James starts his letter to the Jewish Christians with the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. He concludes his letter with Behold, we consider those blessed who remained steadfast. We develop steadfastness by our reactions to trials and suffering. In turn, as we remain steadfast in the faith, we show others the hope we have in the gospel. James describes the three responses we should have to suffering.

1 Be patient.

⁷Be patient, therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains. ⁸You also, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. JAMES 5:7,8

For farmers, rain is money. They can only eat and sell if the rains come and their crops grow. James tells us to be patient and stay strong, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. The farmers wait for something uncertain; we can be patient because we are waiting for something certain. Is there something God is asking you to be patient for even through suffering? Tell us about it.

2 Look to God.

Behold, we consider those blessed who remained steadfast. You have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, how the Lord is compassionate and merciful. JAMES 5:11

We remain steadfast during suffering when we look to God. James talks about Job, who went through many kinds of suffering but continued to hold fast to God. More important than Job's steadfastness, though, is who God is. God is compassionate and merciful, and He has a plan and purpose for our lives. How does Job respond to God in Job 42:2-6?

3 Pray in faith.

¹⁶. . . The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. ¹⁷Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. ¹⁸Then he prayed again, and heaven gave rain, and the earth bore its fruit. JAMES 5:16-18

(Read also JAMES 5:13-15.)

We can be patient because we know the day of the Lord is coming. We can look to God because we know He is compassionate and merciful, and that He has a plan and a purpose for us. Even so, we are not supposed to stop there. James reminds us that the prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. Even the Prophet Elijah was only a man, but his prayer stopped the rains for over three years. What does Hebrews 11:7,8 say about praying and living by faith?
