

1 | Obey.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out not knowing where he was going. HEBREWS 11:8

(Read also GENESIS 12:1-4.)

Abraham was a pagan when, seemingly out of nowhere, he was called by God to go from his country to the land that God showed him. Along with this command, God gave Abraham a promise: "I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing." Even though Abraham and Sarah were already old and they had everything they needed, they obeyed God's call. Has God ever asked you to do something that, at first, did not make sense to you? How did you respond? What happened?

2 | Look forward.

For he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God. HEBREWS 11:10

Abraham, along with Sarah and their household, went as God had told him. Throughout the book of Genesis, we see that though Abraham wasn't certain where he would end up, he continuously obeyed. He was looking forward to the fulfillment of God's seemingly impossible promise of having a son, and to the city whose designer and builder is God. He left everything that was familiar and comfortable because he held on to the word that God had given and had hope for a better future with Him. What does Romans 5:5 say about putting our hope in God?

3 | Consider God faithful.

By faith Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered him faithful who had promised. HEBREWS 11:11

Logically, there was no way Abraham and Sarah could bear a child. Sarah was barren. She and Abraham were too old. Their faith was far from perfect. At one point, they even tried to "help" God fulfill His promise to them out of impatience. But God had His own way of doing things and nothing is impossible or too hard for Him (Genesis 18:14). Man has the tendency to look at an impossibility and try to solve it with human logic and abilities. Faith, however, is confident that God is faithful and able to fulfill what He has promised. How has this truth been displayed in your life?

APPLICATION

- Have you put your faith in Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior? Would you like to do so today and receive the gift of eternal life that can only be found in Him?
- What promises from God do you consider impossible? What are two things that you can do this week to respond to these "impossibilities" in faith?
- When was the last time you asked God for the impossible? Think about something you used to pray for, but stopped. How can you consider God as the only option for it this week?
