

WARM-UP

- Describe an important event you recently witnessed or experienced. Give your thoughts about what happened.
- Is there a time when something you had been waiting on finally happened? Tell us more about it.
- Have you ever experienced not being reprimanded despite a mistake you made? How did you feel?

WORD For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures . . . 1 CORINTHIANS 15:3

(Read also 1 CORINTHIANS 15:1-2, 4-8.)

Christ's death and resurrection is a story of love and hope that was all part of God's plan—right from the beginning. The message of the gospel is not an afterthought. That is to say, we are not an afterthought to God. Knowing and appreciating how God saved us does not only give us the confidence to come before Him without any fear or shame; it also reminds us that we have a testimony to share and a message to proclaim. Today, we will look at how Christ's death and sacrifice redeem us and provide us an opportunity to deliver the message God has given us.

1 | Christ died.

For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures . . .

1 CORINTHIANS 15:3

Christ's death, though brutal and painful, is an act of love that was witnessed by many people. His sacrifice is not a myth; it is a historical fact. Jesus was on earth as a real person—innocent, yet suffered unjustly on the cross. Without His death, redemption would have been impossible. What does Christ's death mean for you? What does Luke 23:48 say about the crowd that had witnessed Jesus's death?

2 | Christ died for our sins.

For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures . . .

1 CORINTHIANS 15:3

(Read also 1 PETER 3:18.)

When Jesus died, far more happened than mere suffering and pain. His death on the cross did something for us. Isaiah 53:5 says that He was pierced for our transgressions and he was crushed for our iniquities. On the cross, He dealt with our failures and our shame. He took our place and endured the death that we deserved to free us from our sins—even those that seem too great to forgive or too hurtful to overcome. How has Jesus' love displayed on the cross changed the way you look at yourself and others? What does 1 Peter 2:24 say about how we should live our lives in light of Christ's sacrifice?

3 | Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures.

For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures . . .

1 CORINTHIANS 15:3

The purpose of Jesus' death resounds not just in the New Testament but even in the Old Testament. Through the prophet Isaiah, God promised to send a Savior who would bear our sins and suffer in our place (Isaiah 53:4). Hundreds of years later, Jesus came and endured the most painful death—in complete obedience to God—so we could have the most precious gift. Just as God fulfilled His redemptive work through the death and sacrifice of His Son, Jesus, we can be secure that He will also complete His work in us, as well as His plans and purposes for us. Why do you think Jesus' death happened during such a time? How does this help us appreciate the gospel more?

APPLICATION

- How has the understanding of Jesus' death and suffering changed you? What can you do to let others know the depth of God's love for us?
- Pause and give some thought to how much God has forgiven you. How can you extend forgiveness to someone who has hurt you in the past?
- To whom can you share this message of salvation with this week? Ask God to give you the grace to obey what He is prompting you to do.

