

1 | Isaac was set on his plan.

So he came near and kissed him. And Isaac smelled the smell of his garments and blessed him and said, "See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field that the Lord has blessed!" GENESIS 27:27

In spite of the word from God (Genesis 25:23) that the older will serve the younger, and in spite of the fact that Esau sold his birthright as the oldest son to Jacob (Genesis 25:29-34), Isaac was determined to give the blessing to Esau. On the day that Isaac was set on blessing Esau, he asked him to hunt and prepare delicious food (Genesis 27:4) before blessing him. Do you remember a time when you insisted on your own will and plans in spite of knowing God's will and commands?

2 | God's will prevailed.

Then Isaac trembled very violently and said, "Who was it then that hunted game and brought it to me, and I ate it all before you came, and I have blessed him? Yes, and he shall be blessed."

GENESIS 27:33

When Isaac learned of Jacob's deception, he trembled very violently. He was not the only one outraged. Esau cried out with an exceedingly great and bitter cry when his father told him what had happened. Isaac and Esau were both set on what they wanted, but God's will prevailed. Before the twins were born, the Lord had already said that the older shall serve the younger (Genesis 25:23). How is God making His will known in your life?

3 | Isaac surrendered to God's will.

Isaac answered and said to Esau, "Behold, I have made him lord over you, and all his brothers I have given to him for servants, and with grain and wine I have sustained him. What then can I do for you, my son?" GENESIS 27:37

In the end, Isaac saw that God is sovereign in carrying out His plans. Isaac finally trusted God and submitted his will to God's will. He confirmed the blessing given to Jacob by telling Esau that he would indeed serve his brother, even if he knew that it would break his beloved son's heart (Genesis 27:39). According to Hebrews 10:36, what will happen after we have done the will of God?
